

Assistant Director, Development & Marketing

PRISCILLA MCDOWELL

Ms. McDowell began her First Tee journey in 2012 as parent to an First Tee – Metro Atlanta participant and joined the FTMA staff in a part time role in 2018. In 2019 she came on board full time and now serves as the Assistant Director of Development & Marketing. McDowell collaborates closely with all FTMA team members in cultivating and stewarding donors, contributing to the growth of our donor base, volunteer pool, and youth participants.

Driven by a passion for partner relationships and community impact, she is dedicated to steering First Tee – Metro Atlanta toward new heights of success through efficient, creative, and impactful initiatives.

McDowell previously served as Director of Shenanigans for Club Sport Ventures, an organization that provided adult recreational sports leagues across the metro Atlanta area. She attended UNC Chapel Hill (Go Heels) where she earned a BA in Political Science. Wife of 1, and mother of 2, Priscilla is an avid sports fan. She enjoys practicing yoga, spending time with family and friends, and supporting all of the Boston area sports teams.
