

Assistant Director, Outreach & Engagement

TOBY BOLTON

Toby has been a part of four different First Tee Chapters for the last 16 years. During this time, she has served in every chapter position, from volunteer coach to Executive Director. Currently, she works as Assistant Director, Outreach & Engagement for First Tee – Metro Atlanta. She enjoys developing the curriculum and collaborating with DeKalb County Physical Education Teachers to instill the inherent values of golf in students.

Golf has been a part of Toby's life since she was seven years old. After a successful career in pharmacology, she coached as a D-1 head women's golf coach for five years before joining the First Tee of Phoenix to help grow the game for young girls.

Toby has been an LPGA member for 14 years. After joining First Tee – Metro Atlanta in 2018, one of her first accomplishments was to start an LPGA Girls Golf Program. She is currently the site director.

